THEATRE PROJECT

In just eight weeks we will select a play, design and build the set and costumes, rehearse and perform. Anyone with an interest in theatre is welcome to participate. We need actors, designers, technicians and more! Participants will learn all aspects of theatre production, from auditions to opening night. If you love performing, but have an interest in what goes on behind the scenes, this class is for you. If you dread the idea of being on stage, but love painting, building and designing, props, costumes and sets, this class is for you too!
