Based on Robert Fulghum's best-selling books, Kindergarten takes a heartwarming look at what is profound in everyday life. The delightful stories feature colorful characters such as: a shy little boy who insists on playing the pig in his class production of Cinderella; a man whose dream of flying carries him over Los Angeles in a lawn chair; a mother of the bride who's staged a perfect wedding; and a modern-day Greek philosopher who finds the meaning of life in a piece of broken mirror. These stories celebrate our very existence, from the whimsy of childhood to the wisdom of old age. Produced by special arrangement with The Dramatic Publishing Company of Woodstock, Ill. Originally developed at Mill Mountain Theatre, Roanoke, Va., Jere Hodgkin, Producing Artistic Director.

Suppose you're an attractive high-school girl and you're not only a member of a large and unique family but your father is one of the great pioneers of industrial efficiency. Then suppose he decides to apply his unorthodox methods to you and to the rest of your big family. The results are terribly embarrassing, funny and extremely effective! Dad pushes ahead with better organization for his large, delightful family. While the situations are often uproarious, there's a serious reason for Dad's plan. This is a play you do not want to miss!
